NATIONAL 4-H CLUB WEEK

For the past three years Senior 4-H'ers from Appomattox County have been participating in Interstate Exchange programs. These programs gave the 4-H'ers a chanced to see the opportunities and techniques of 4-H in other states and a chance to observe how cultures and customs vary from state to state.

The 4-Hgroup from Appomattox visited Bolivar, Tenn., and Elk County, Pa. We also hosted 4-H'ers from these two states.

Although each visit only lasted about a week we had the opportunity to see many interesting sights. A few of the places we visited were Penn State University, University of Tennessee, Country Music Hall of Fame, Exotic Animal Farms, Horse ranches, lumberman's museum, and a large modern high school development.

While 4-H'ers from out of state were visiting in Virginia we toured such places as Jamestown, Appomattox Historical Park, Smith Mt. Lake Dam, and we took in a showing of the "Common Glory" in Williamsburg.

But although the tours were interesting I feel that we learned more by just making new friends. We kidded each other about fads and accents but we all had one thing in common we all belong to the vast family of 4-H.

Who knows where we will go next year. Maybe we will head south or take the mid-west. But wherever we go you can be sure we will have fun, and make more friends. So why don't you get involved in our 4-H program! We can always use your support. Yes 4-H is the place to be!

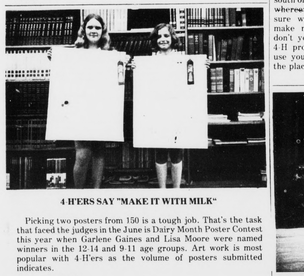
4-H Demonstrations and Illustrated Talks give members an opportunity to present knowledge and skills to others, to gain poise, learn to speak in front of groups, and enjoy learning from others through demonstrations and illustrated talks.

In 1973, over 50 Appomattox 4-Hers presented demonstrations in county, area, District and State contests.



4 H'ERS SAY "MAKE IT WITH MILK"

Picking two posters from 150 is a tough job. That's the task that faced the judges in the June is Dairy Month Poster Contest this year when Garlene Gaines and Lisa Moore were named winners in the 12-14 and 9-11 age groups. Art work is most popular with 4-H'ers as the volume of posters submitted indicates.

KLASSROOM QUIZ BECOMES A TRADITION

The Appomattox Community Senior 4-H Club has brought area and state wide recognition to Appomattox through its appearance on WDBJ-TV's Klassroom Quiz. For the past two summers the club has sponsored a team to the program in Roanoke with the 1972 Team (Mike Belter, David Jones, and Mary Parris) winning five consecutive weeks before being defeated. The 1973 team (David, Mary, and Paula Franklin) won twice before being defeated while obtaining a perfect score. Tryouts are held each April with plans already underway for a return in 1974.

WHAT 4-H MEANS TO ME

4-H means opportunity for me and for others, to win things at Dog Shows, Public Speaking, Share-the-Fun, Demonstrations, Southern Regional Contests, Fairs, Milk Poster Contests, and others, too. It means something you can do by yourself and be proud of yourself. It gives youngsters like me a chance to do things. And that is what 4-H means to me.
